

"Whatever we say and do, we impact the lives of others. We are models and the world is watching."
~ Diane, high school coach

"This conference helped me understand that coaching is about more than winning games. It is really about being a role model and helping my student athletes become great leaders and productive citizens."
~ Bryant, high school coach

"My coaches really set me in the right direction. They helped me... become me."
~ Ryan Mathews, NFL Player

Conference Price:

Coach: $ 140

Coach and Spouse: $ 195

*The full conference price of $ 675 is subsidized by FCA and PAO.

2011 Coaches Time Out Conference

Phoenix, Arizona

June 3-5, 2011
Embassy Suites Phoenix-Biltmore

Come and...

...enjoy time away to relax and retreat.

...receive practical tools to strengthen your faith, family, and career.

...connect with peers who understand the dimensions of coaching.

Featured Speakers

Jon Kitna is a quarterback for the Dallas Cowboys. Jon just completed a remarkable 15th season in the NFL. He has a heart to serve the Lord and isn't afraid to confront difficult issues to help people live more like Christ. He plans on becoming a high school coach when he retires from the NFL.

Eric Boles is President of The Game Changers, a training and consulting company. He is a highly acclaimed keynote speaker and consultant for some of the most recognized companies in the world. His expertise is in team dynamics, leadership, maximizing momentum, personal growth and change.

Don Christensen is the Client Services Director for the Western United States for Ronald Blue & Co., LLC, a full service financial solutions firm. With expertise in financial planning and investment management, Don provides a Biblical perspective on investing, debt management, and living within our means.

Coaches Time Out
is a ministry partnership of

Both individuals & couples will benefit from great teaching and relevant workshops, with plenty of free time to get rejuvenated.

REGISTER NOW TO RESERVE YOUR SPOT:

www.CoachesTimeOut.org